

australasian neuroscience
nurses association
movement disorder chapter

Australasian Neuroscience Nurses Association Movement Disorder Chapter Conference Preliminary Program

Thursday 14th November 2019
Adelaide Convention Centre

08:30am-09:00am Registration

Session 1 – Invited Speakers (Moderator - Lynda Huddy & Eleanor Carrigan)

- 09:00am Welcome and Introduction – Lynda Huddy (SA)
- 09:15am How to structure and set up a Parkinson’s Nurse Led Clinic – Jayne Gow (TAS)
- 09:45am The Parkinson’s Nurse Specialists’ Role in Identification of Patients Suitable for Device Assisted Therapies – David Tsui (NSW)
- 10:15am Moving forward: The Future and Sustainability of The Parkinson’s Nurse Specialists’ Role – Janet McLeod (WA)

10:45am-11:15am Morning Tea

Session 2 – Abstract Submissions (Moderator - Amy Jones)

- 11:15am A series of presentations from abstracts submitted by delegates
- 01:00pm ANNA Movement Disorders Chapter Annual General Meeting (AGM) – Sue Williams (Chair of ANNA MDC)

1:30pm-2:30pm Lunch

Session 3 – Invited Speakers (Moderator - Sue Williams)

- 02:30pm Targeting peripheral inflammatory pathology in Parkinson’s disease using repurposed drugs: Pathological mechanisms – Associate Professor John O’Sullivan (QLD) *Keynote speaker
- 03:30pm Setting up a Telehealth Service in the Care of People with Parkinson’s – Elise Tune (QLD)
- 04:00pm Interactive Video Case Studies: Symptom Identification – Co-hosted by Greg Harris (NSW) & David Tsui (NSW)
- 04:55pm Evaluation and Closing Remarks – Sue Williams

06:30pm Evening Social Event